Opportunities to Make a Difference

Empower Club members to succeed through structured, positive mentoring relationships. Volunteers can tutor, assist with homework, coach an athletic team, serve at events, or simply read to a child or group of children. To mentor, volunteer and impact a child’s life, contact (314) 335-8141.

Give

Building Great Futures Every Day

When your child joins Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater St. Louis, they get access to nationally-recognized programs, caring professional mentors and opportunities to become leaders at home, at school and in the community.

We are open the hours that kids and teens are mostly likely to need a safe place – after school and during the summer – and our focus is on helping club members envision a great future for themselves. Our promise is to do whatever it takes to help them get there.
